To: Governors and Alternate Governors of Member States of the Common Fund for Commodities

cc. Executive Directors and
Alternate Executive Directors

Your Excellency,
Dear Madam,
Dear Sir,

I have the honour to refer to Regulation 3.2 (c) of the Staff Regulations and Rules of the Common Fund which provides, inter alia, that as far as practicable, vacancy announcements shall be transmitted by the Managing Director to Member States.

The position of Chief Finance Officer (D1 level) with the Common Fund for Commodities will become available in August 2007. Please find attached a vacancy announcement for your information. This advertisement will be placed in the Financial Times on 31 May 2007 and in the Economist on 1 June 2007. Full details on the position are available in the 'Vacancies' section of the Common Fund website. It would be appreciated if appropriate publicity could be given to the announcement within your country.

Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Amb. Ali Mchumo

COMMON FUND FOR COMMODITIES

Chief Finance Officer

The Common Fund for Commodities (CFC) invites applications for the position of Chief Finance Officer. The Common Fund for Commodities is an intergovernmental financial institution established by the United Nations and located in Amsterdam. Its main objective is to assist Developing Countries, which are dependent on the production and export of primary commodities, through financing of commodity development projects. Further information about the Common Fund can be found at www.common-fund.org.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Chief Finance Officer will, with direct reference to the Managing Director, be responsible for the handling and investment of the Fund's resources in accordance with financial regulations. In line with the structure of the CFC, the Chief Finance Officer is also required to oversee matters of Administration and Human Resources. Full details of this vacancy are available in the 'Vacancies' section of the Common Fund website.

Requirements

An advanced University degree in finance/economics, combined with at least 15 years managerial experience in international banking and investment including portfolio management, bond dealing and capital borrowing/project lending. The incumbent must be computer literate and have an excellent command of English. Knowledge of French or Spanish would be an asset.

Salary and Benefits

The Common Fund offers a competitive tax-free salary in line with United Nations scales starting normally at the D1 level. The appointment will be on a two-year renewable contract basis.

Applications in English, including curriculum vitae, should be submitted by 6 July 2007 at the address given below. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.
